Submitted to His Highness.

The accompanying papers relate to the question of allowing grade to grade promotions in the cadre of Deputy Commissioners in vacancies consequent on the appointment of Mr. N. Madhava Rao, Deputy Commissioner, First Class, as Revenue Commissioner from 1st September 1933, and certain readjustments of posts included in the cadre.

The cadre of Deputy Commissioners consists of 11 posts (4 in I Class, 5 in II Class, and 2 in III Class). Under existing orders these are allocated as under:-

8 For charge of Districts
1 Chief Secretary to Government
1 Director of Industries and Commerce
1 Municipal Commissioner, Bangalore City.

During the absence of Mr. N. Madhava Rao, (then Chief Secretary) on deputation to England in connection with the meetings of the Joint Parliamentary Committee, the place of Chief Secretary was as a temporary measure removed from the cadre and the post of General Secretary was included in the cadre instead. It is now proposed to make this arrangement permanent.

The post of Development Secretary is usually one held by a Deputy Commissioner. But so long as it was held by Mr. D. Srinivasa Iyengar, it had been removed from the cadre of Deputy Commissioners on personal grounds, and during his employment as acting Excise Commissioner, Mr. S. Abdul Wajid was shown to be acting as Development Secretary in his place. As Mr. D. Srinivasa Iyengar has been confirmed as Excise Commissioner from 1st September 1933, it is proposed to re-include the post of Development Secretary in the cadre of Deputy Commissioners and per contra to remove the post of Director of Industries and Commerce from the cadre. The result of the above proposals will be that the cadre of Deputy Commissioners will hereafter consist of --

8 in Charge of Districts
1 General Secretary.
1 Development Secretary
1 Municipal Commissioner, Bangalore City.

11

The promotions that would-be admissible in the cadre of Deputy Commissioners in consequence of the above proposals are indicated in the statement put up herewith.

L.
Pages 1 & 5 of Annexure

The Members of Council are agreeable to the arrangements suggested above and I beg to recommend that they may be graciously approved.
